

THE UNION FLAG.

Jonesboro, August 25, 1865.

LOCAL ITEMS.

VISIT OF GOV. BROWNLOW.—On Monday evening last His Excellency Governor William G. Brownlow, accompanied by General Lister, Mr. S. C. Mercer, editor of the Nashville Press and Times, and other distinguished gentlemen, arrived in our town. The Governor is looking in excellent health, and expresses his gratification in finding matters in such a flourishing condition in this department of the State. His Excellency and suit proceeded up the country as far as Carter Station, the present terminus of the East Tennessee and Va. Railroad, on an inspecting tour. The party returned westward on Tuesday morning. His Excellency was accompanied by the Band of the 14th U. S. Colored Infantry, which discoursed some very fine music.

HOME AGAIN.—Dr. Wm. R. Sevier, who was compelled, in 1863, to flee from his home in this place last week. It is not necessary for us to speak of the politics and character of Dr. Sevier. He is known and loved of all good people of this community—always a firm and unflinching supporter of "the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws"—fearless and unreserved, yet with that noble forbearance which has ever characterized him in all his dealings with his fellow men—many of whom owe their faithful adherence and undying fidelity to their country's cause to his indomitable and earnest efforts in the early stages of the rebellion, which, by his inborn loyalty and natural genius, he so successfully instilled. May he long live to enjoy the blessings of that Government of which his distinguished relative, Governor Sevier, was one of the founders, and for which he has ever so ardently labored to maintain.

CROPS FLOURISHING.—We took a ride through the country early in the week and found, we are pleased to say, the corn crop in a most flourishing condition—looking better than we have seen for many years. We, at this time, have every evidence of an abundant crop of corn.

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU AND CONFISCATED PROPERTY.—Our townsman, S. E. Griffith, Esq., has received the appointment of Assistant Superintendent of the Refugee and Freedmen's Bureau, as the following order from the War Department will show. All persons who have in their employ freedmen, are required to pay them a stipulated price for their labor; any violation of these regulations will be attended with investigation and punishment:

WAR DEPARTMENT, BUREAU OF Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands,
GREENVILLE, TENN., Aug. 23, 1865.

SPECIAL ORDER,
No. 2.
I, Samuel E. Griffith, citizen of Jonesboro, Tenn., is hereby assigned to duties as Assistant Superintendent Bureau Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, for Washington County, Tenn., with headquarters at Jonesboro, Tenn. He will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

By command of
F. W. LISTER, Brevet Brig. Gen.
and Superintendent B. R. F. & A. L.
W. F. CORBETT, Lieut. & A. A. G.

PAPERS.—Our thanks are due Mr. S. H. Snowden, Baggage Master, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Homer, Conductors, Mr. Doyle, Mr. Polley, and Mr. Coleman Express Messengers, for favors.

PERSONAL.—Brevet Brig. Gen. Lister, the Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau Department of East Tennessee, and S. C. Mercer, Esq., the spirited editor of the Nashville Press and Times, paid us a call on Tuesday morning.

Also, John Slack, Esq., our cotemporary of the Bristol News. The latter gentlemen, we are glad to learn, succeeded in making arrangements for the successful circulation in our midst of their respective journals—both of which are well gotten up and ably edited.

CAPT. F. M. McFALL.—We are pleased to learn that this officer—an old and much esteemed comrade of ours—has been assigned to duty, as A. A. General, on the staff of Col. Ratliff, Comd'g Sep. Cav. Brigade, Department of East Tennessee. Capt. McFall is a native of this county, and formerly belonged to the staff of Col. John K. Miller. He is a talented and gentlemanly officer.

AGENT FOR PURCHASING WHEAT.—An informal meeting was held by the farmers in this county on Monday last, and Henry Marsh, Esq., was appointed as Agent to go North and purchase seed wheat for use this fall. This is a most excellent movement, and we are glad to see that our farmers are determined not to trust to their present adulterated crop for seed. We understand several thousand dollars will be invested for a good article of seed wheat by our farmers. A better judge of good wheat, or a better selection from among our farmers could not have been made than Esquire Marsh.

WE UNDERSTAND THE GOVERNMENT has turned over to the Company the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad.

REV. DR. L. F. DRAKE has our thanks for favors.

MESSRS DANIELS & HULLSTON'S advertisement of "Globe Saloon." Everything in the drinking line is kept by them—wines, brandies, ale and beer—and they know how to manage their business.

SEE ADVERTISEMENT OF EXCHANGE HOTEL Bristol—kept by Messrs. Luttrell and Gillem.

SEE MR. S. E. GRIFFITH'S advertisement of new Goods, Groceries &c. He keeps everything in the Dry Goods and Grocery line—and has nice handsome and gentlemanly clerks to wait upon you.

WE PUBLISH THE FOLLOWING flattering notices with no spirit of egotism, but merely to show our loyal friends at home what our neighbors think of us—and to each we doff our beaver, thankfully. We are still for the Union and the stately banner, however—albeit traitors and rebel sympathizers to the contrary notwithstanding.

Opinions of the Press.

[From the Knoxville Whig, August 19.]

On the 1st of March last there were only nine newspapers in Tennessee. To-day there are twenty, all in a prosperous condition, and we hear of four or five more starting.

We are glad that three of these papers have been started in East Tennessee—one at Kingston, Roane county, which we have noticed before, one at Greenville, called the New Era, and another, the Union Flag, at Jonesboro, Washington county. All these papers in East Tennessee have the ring of the true metal; all supporters of the administration of President Johnson, and the Amended Constitution of Tennessee.

We would rejoice to see a paper published in every county of the State, as there is in the Southern States, that might be disseminated among all the people on all questions. The Jonesboro Union Flag is edited by Capt. George E. Griffith, whom we have seen fight armed rebels, and he is now making a vigorous war on unarmed but malignant rebels and secessionists. We trust the people of East Tennessee will sustain every loyal paper now published, or which may hereafter be published in this section of the State.

"Mightiest of the mighty means,
On which the arm of progress leans;
Man's noblest mission to advance—
His woe assuage, his woe enhance—
His rights enforce, his wrongs redress,
Mightiest of the mighty, is the Press."

[From the Bristol News.]

The enterprising publisher of the "East Tennessee Union Flag," Jonesboro, is publishing the "Adventures of Lieut. George N. Douglas, of the 8th East Tennessee Infantry, the renowned Union scout and pilot—embracing a period of three years—detailing his Adventures among the rebel guerrillas in the Mountains of East Tennessee, North Carolina, and Kentucky." The author, Capt. Grisham, we believe, wields a clever pen, and the locale of the narrative gives it an interest of importance in this section.

[From the Kingston East Tennessean.]

We have received several numbers of the "Union Flag," a neat and spirited paper, published at Jonesboro, and edited by Geo. E. Griffith. We wish him abundant success, and hope he may continue to reflect his light upon the dark and benighted regions of upper East Tennessee, which have been slightly obfuscated under the reign of Mudwall Jackson.

The paymaster made matters flourishing in Jonesboro a few days since.

Circular No. 2, from Col. Williams received too late for this issue.

Messrs. Brock & Chapin have, as with their usual magnanimity, furnished us regularly with the latest daily and other papers. They are the successors to Messrs. Smith and Co., and keep constantly on hand all the late daily papers, periodicals and periodicals; also the largest assortment of School and other Books, at reasonable prices. Give them a call when you visit Knoxville.

The conspiracy prisoners at the Dry Tortugas are employed as follows: Mudd is assistant surgeon, Arnold is a clerk, Spangler is carpenter, and O'Laughlin is made useful.

The Atlantic Telegraph Cable has again proved a failure. Wants a Yankee to get hold of it—then it's all right.

Nashville Weekly Dispatch

TO DAY WE PRESENT TO THE PUBLIC THE INITIAL number of the weekly edition of the NASHVILLE DISPATCH. The well known character of the Dispatch as a news and commercial journal renders any promise on our part as to what the weekly will be wholly unnecessary. This number may be regarded as a fair specimen of what the paper will be, and those who want such a paper should order it at once.

Mail communication is being rapidly resumed with the different portions of the State, and will be completed, so that ample facilities for securing papers regularly will be afforded the people. The present is, therefore, a favorable time for parties to order such papers as will keep them posted in regard to the great events which are transpiring.

The subscription to the weekly is $3, and the daily $14 per year, the money to be paid before the paper is sent, and it will invariably be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which it is paid.

Nashville Weekly Press & Times.

"Freedom and Nationality."
THIS PRESS & TIMES IS A NATIONAL UNION paper, and the official State paper. It gives a larger quantity of State news than any other in Tennessee. It has a very large daily and weekly circulation. Single weekly subscription $3.00 per annum. Daily paper $14 per annum.
